

ABSTRACT

The present invention relates to a cosmetic process for treating dry skin or a dry scalp by the topical application to the skin or the scalp of a composition containing, in a physiologically acceptable medium, at least one of 5-cholesten-3 β ,25-diol-7-one and esters and ethers thereof.